

Studio650 Adult Classes Privacy Policy

Effective Date: August 17, 2026

Studio650 ("Studio650," "we," "our," or "us") respects your privacy and is committed to protecting the personal information you provide when registering for or participating in our adult classes, including Adult Hip Hop/K-Pop, Sculpt, Sculpt Yoga, and other adult dance, movement, and fitness offerings.

1. Information We Collect

When you register for classes, purchase memberships or class credits, communicate with Studio650, or use our website or registration system, we may collect information such as:

- Name
- Email address
- Phone number
- Billing and payment information
- Class registrations and attendance history
- Membership and class-credit information
- Emergency contact information, when applicable
- Communications you send to Studio650
- Other information you voluntarily provide

Payment information may be collected and processed by third-party payment and registration providers. Studio650 may not directly store complete credit or debit card information.

2. How We Use Your Information

We may use your information to:

- Process class registrations, memberships, class credits, and payments
- Manage your Studio650 account
- Communicate about schedules, cancellations, substitutions, studio updates, and other class-related information
- Provide customer service
- Maintain attendance and registration records
- Send Studio650 news, class announcements, promotions, or marketing communications where permitted by law
- Improve our classes, services, website, and customer experience
- Protect Studio650, our clients, instructors, and business operations
- Comply with applicable legal, accounting, and regulatory requirements

3. Sharing of Information

Studio650 does not sell your personal information.

We may share information with service providers that help us operate our business, including registration platforms, payment processors, email or communication providers, website providers, and other vendors necessary to provide Studio650 services.

We may also disclose information when required by law or when reasonably necessary to protect the rights, safety, or property of Studio650, our clients, instructors, or others.

4. Communications

By providing your contact information, you may receive transactional communications related to your account, purchases, memberships, or scheduled classes.

Where permitted, Studio650 may also send information regarding new classes, promotions, events, or other Studio650 offerings.

You may unsubscribe from promotional emails using the unsubscribe option provided in those communications. Transactional or account-related communications may still be sent when necessary.

5. Payment Information

Payments may be processed through third-party registration and payment providers. Their collection and use of payment information may also be governed by their own privacy policies and terms.

6. Data Security

Studio650 takes reasonable administrative and technical measures to protect personal information. However, no electronic storage, transmission, or online system can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

7. Data Retention

We may retain personal information for as long as reasonably necessary to provide our services, maintain business and financial records, resolve disputes, enforce agreements, and comply with legal obligations.

8. Your Privacy Rights

Depending on applicable law, California residents may have certain rights regarding their personal information, including rights to request information about personal information collected, request correction or deletion in certain circumstances, and receive information about how personal information is used or disclosed.

Requests regarding personal information may be submitted to Studio650 using the contact information below.

9. Third-Party Services

Our website or registration process may contain links to or integrate with third-party services. Studio650 is not responsible for the privacy practices of third-party websites, platforms, or service providers.

10. Changes to This Privacy Policy

Studio650 may update this Privacy Policy periodically. Updates will become effective when the revised policy is posted, unless otherwise stated.
